If approved, members must adhere to the the Code of Ethical Conduct

"The Associated General Contractors of South Florida realizes the vital impact the construction industry has upon the well-being, comfort and safety of the entire public, and this awesome role requires professional responsibility founded upon honor and trust. This responsibility requires, among other things, that we seek to improve construction methods, management and service, to eliminate uneconomical and improper practices, and to build responsibility throughout the industry. It surely cannot mean less than the establishment of construction service which will give to the investing public an assurance of skill and faithful performance." --Code of Ethical Conduct

The Company makes application for membership in the Associated General Contractors of America and the South Florida Chapter of the Associated General Contractors of America on the basis of the foregoing statements. The company certifies that the foregoing statements are correct, and agrees if membership is conferred, that in accepting the privileges it will also accept the obligations; that it will be governed by the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the Association as long as a member, and furthermore agrees to uphold the Code of Ethical Conduct and promote the objectives of the Association.

The dues are payable monthly. General Contractors select a dues category based on last year's volume, subject to review and approval by the Board of Directors. A General Contractor that is a home chapter member of another AGC Chapter pays only non-home dues to the South Florida Chapter. The undersigned affirms that he/she subscribes to and will uphold the Associated General Contractors ideals of Skill, Responsibility and Integrity. I understand that by providing my company's mailing address, telephone and fax, I consent to receive communications from SFAGC and AGC of America via mail, telephone, fax or electronically.
